BIC Applauds Governor's Appointment of Dan Greear to Kanawha Circuit Court

CHARLESTON, W.Va. – The West Virginia Business & Industry Council (BIC) today saluted Governor Jim Justice for appointing Dan Greear to serve on the Circuit Court of Kanawha County.

Greear will succeed Judge James Stucky, who retired.

"Members of BIC are grateful for Governor Justice's leadership and selection of Dan Greear to serve on the Circuit Court bench," BIC Chairman Chris Hamilton said. "This appointment brings a conservative perspective to arguably one of the state's most active and important courts."

An experienced attorney with diverse experience, Greear earlier announced his intention to be a candidate for the Kanawha Circuit Court in the November election. He most recently has served as chief of staff for the West Virginia House of Delegates.

The nonpartisan election is scheduled for November.
